

Seek More From Cash

July 25, 2018

Cash is an important component of any portfolio. In addition to providing you with premium interest rates, liquidity and safety – our solutions help you manage overall portfolio risk, seize market opportunities when they arise, and plan prudently for the future.

Manage Portfolio Risk

Holding Investment Savings Accounts and GICs reduces risk and volatility by diversifying and complementing portfolios that contain equity, fixed income or any other investments that may fluctuate thereby impacting the principal invested in them.

Seize Market Opportunities

Investment Savings Accounts and GICs allow you to mobilize funds at different times of the market cycle to take advantage of opportunities – as they arise – without being forced to liquidate other investments that are being held based on their individual merits.

Plan Prudently

If you begin to regularly draw on funds or perhaps have a large future expense you would like to plan for, holding Investment Savings Accounts and GICs ensures that funds are available when needed and with peace of mind included.
